Ricker Choi, guest pianist

About Ricker Choi –

Ricker Choi has a successful career in financial risk management but his first love is classical music. Ricker began studying piano at age 13, after his family immigrated to Canada. Through years of dedicated practice he earned the ARCT Diploma in Piano Performance at age 18. Faced with a choice between a career in music or in business, Ricker opted for the “easy route” and enrolled in York University’s Schulich School of Business, where he earned an undergraduate degree and MBA.

After a 12-year hiatus Ricker returned to piano studies with pianist Boris Zarankin in 2005. Later he also started working with Michael Esch, Lawrence Pitchko and Kui Min. An award-winning amateur pianist, he has performed numerous times in festivals and recitals in Canada and internationally. His most memorable experience was performing at the Berlin Philharmonie’s 2500 seat Großer Saal and at Paris’ 1000 seat Salle Gaveau. In 2006 Ricker combined his love of piano and philanthropy to establish Music Heals!, a series of fund-raising concerts for charity organizations such as SickKids Foundation. Net proceeds from CD sales go to Caden Koo Tribute Fund at the SickKids Foundation

Arabesque Ricker Choi

The numbers in this selection exemplify the sensuality in piano music. Whether it is in the wavy lights in Clair de Lune or the spinning tempo of Viennese Waltz, we can feel the range of movements and emotions that music captures for us.

Much as it speaks, Music Heals: It calms the troubled hearts and the tormented souls. In a wider sense of healing through music, I am donating the net proceeds from the sales of this CD to the Caden Koo Tribute Fund at the SickKids Foundation.

Caden, son of a friend, left us at the young age of six months. In memory of him, his parents have set up the fund to support the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto.

As you enjoy the music in this CD, I thank you for your support and encouragement to me and children like Caden.

The CD includes all-time classical piano favorites:

Beethoven:
Moonlight Sonata

Debussy:
Arabesque No. 1 and Clair de Lune

Liszt:
Mephisto Waltz No. 1

and more...
